The Court made the following :

J U D G M E N T (Per the Hon'ble Sri Bilal Nazki, ACJ):

The appellant was terminated from service on the charge that he had received fare from two passengers, but not given tickets to them. On facts, the charge against the appellant was proved during enquiry and also before the Chairman, Industrial Tribunal-cum-Labour Court. The award was finally challenged in the writ petition and the learned Single Judge also came to the conclusion that factually the charge has been proved by Exs.M1 to M21 and also by the petitioner's explanation. Since the charge against the appellant has been proved factually, we do not find any ground to interfere either with the award or with the judgment of the learned Single Judge.

The writ appeal is accordingly dismissed. No order as to costs.
